| Equality Tom Keighley | 0.03 | 07/10/2016 | Due to the overwhelming association with health, all equality impacts have been included and considered within a HIA toolkit. |
| Legal Sian Roxborough | 0.03 | 14/10/16 | Delete current legal implication and replace with: ‘Transfer of public health from the NHS to local government and Public Health England (PHE) has introduced a significant extension of local government powers and duties and represents an opportunity to change focus from treating sickness to actively promoting health and wellbeing. Section 12 of the Health and Social Care Act inserts a new section 2B into the NHS Act 2006 to give each relevant local authority a new duty to take such steps as it considers appropriate to improve the health of the people in its area. This section also gives the Secretary of State a power to take steps to improve the health of the people of England and it gives examples of health improvement steps that either local authorities or the Secretary of State could take, including giving information, providing services or facilities to promote healthy living and providing incentives to live more healthily. Local authorities have considerable discretion in how they choose to invest their grant to improve their population’s health, although they have to have regard to the |
