Blackburn with Darwen Borough Council may publish comments and personal details received in connection with planning applications on the internet and make them available for public inspection. This information may include (but is not confined to) your name, address, signature, email address and phone number. Please ensure that you only provide personal information belonging to you, and that you are happy it will be made available to others in this way. If you supply information belonging to a third party, please make sure that you have their permission to do so and that they are aware that their information will be processed in this way.

In accordance with Regulation 33 of the Development Management Procedure Order 2015, all comments made will be taken into account in determining the application, and any comments you provide must also include your name and postal address.

Please note that under the terms of the Local Government (Access to Information) Act 1985, any comments you make will be available for public inspection.

If the application is to be determined by Planning & Highways Committee, members of the Committee will receive a full report about the application, including details of any comments received, to enable them to reach a decision. You will be able to attend the committee meeting and under certain circumstances be able to speak at the meeting. Should you decide you would like to speak at committee, please complete and return a 'request to speak form' by 12 noon the day before the committee date.

"Request to Speak" Forms can be obtained by downloading from the Councils website www.blackburn.gov.uk or by telephoning 01254 585960, (Monday-Friday, 1pm-5pm), and should be returned to: Planning and Highways Committee, Democratic Services, Resources Department, Town Hall, Blackburn, BB1 7DY

You can track the progress of the application, check the decision and committee dates and find out more about how to speak at committee from the Council's website at www.blackburn.gov.uk

If this is a householder application which is subsequently refused and subject to a planning appeal dealt with on the basis of written representations, all comments received will be forwarded to the Secretary of State. There will be no further opportunity to comment at appeal stage.

The Council regrets it is unable to enter into any written correspondence on this matter, and cannot respond to individual objection or comment letter/emails.

If you wish to contact the planning service by telephone, please ring (01254) 585960 (Monday-Friday, 1pm-5pm).
