ii subject to i) above:

Background and Advice

The Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 introduced Police and Crime Panels (PCP) as formal joint committee of all the local authorities in a police force area, with the following main responsibilities.

- making recommendations on the Police and Crime Commissioners (PCC) Police and Crime Plan and Annual Reports;
- consider the PCCs appointment of a Chief Constable, with the Panel having power of veto over the appointment;
- consider the level of precept to be set by the PCC, again with a power of veto;
- review certain senior appointments by the PCC;
- scrutinise and support the activities of the PCC.

For Lancashire the Police force area includes the County Council, 12 District Councils and the two Unitary Councils. The first meeting of the Police and Crime Panel for Lancashire was held on the 31st July 2012.

Constitution of the PCP

In Lancashire, the Panel was initially made up of 15 Elected Members, one from each Authority. Up to an additional 3 elected members can be added in order to achieve the 'balanced appointment objective' so that when taken together the Members of the Panel represented the political make up of all the relevant local authorities for the police area and had the skills, knowledge and experience necessary for it to discharge its functions effectively. Having considered the provisions in the legislation and options available for applying a political balance to the Panel, it was agreed that the constitution of the PCP for 2012/13 should be based on calculation of current political balances across the whole membership of authorities, with the Independent Members being grouped together as a whole. At that time it was agreed to appoint an additional three Elected Members to achieve political balance and the Home Secretary subsequently approved this basis in order to achieve the political balance objective. This has been the arrangement for the last 5 years.

In addition to the above Members, the Panel also agreed to appoint 2 Independent Co-opted Members, who are not elected representatives, to serve on the Panel. In 2015/16 the Panel appointed Mr Bagdadi for a period of 4 years. In 2016/17 Mr Abdull Mulla was appointed also for a period of four years. The Panel agreed at their meeting March 2017 that Katie Gee be appointed as substitute at meetings as Independent Co-opted member in the absence of either Mr Bagdadi or Mr Mulla for a period of 4 years.

It has previously been agreed that Council Members of the Panel would serve a 12 month term on the Panel and that the political balance of the Panel would be reviewed after Local Elections each May.

Following the Local Elections on the 3 May 2018, the political balance has been recalculated and the balance that achieves political balance across the 15 Local Authorities is:

18 Elected Members (plus 2 Independent persons) on the following basis

Labour 9	Conservative 7	Lib Dem 1	Independent Member 1
-------------	-------------------	--------------	-------------------------

This reflects the number of seats won across the County and respective Councils.

This generally reflects the respective controlling parties on each Council.

Whilst it has not been possible to achieve exact political balance, Local Government Association Guidance ['LGA'] on Panel Arrangements and the Balanced Appointment Objective states:

'In some cases it may be difficult to achieve political balance, especially where it is not possible to co-opt additional councillors on to the panel. Councils may not be persuaded to nominate opposition members to achieve complete political balance and as the Home Office legal clarification points out, in recognition of this the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act states that the balanced appointment objective must be secured ‘as far as is practicable’. As the Home Office has also pointed out, whatever membership is eventually agreed on, the rationale for doing that needs to be robust enough to withstand legal challenge.’

As reported previously Local Authorities combined must ‘agree’ to the balance of the Panel and the Home Office has powers to intervene and make appointments if agreement cannot be reached locally, though it has been made clear that the best Panel arrangements are those which are locally determined.

Each Local Authority in the Lancashire Police Area has been consulted and the following representatives have been nominated to date to serve on the Panel for 2018/19:

Local Authority	Representative (s)	Political Party
1.Blackburn with Darwen	Andy Kay	Labour
2.Blackpool	Ivan Taylor	Labour
3.Burnley	Tony Martin	Labour
4.Chorley	Alistair Bradley	Labour
5.Fylde	Ben Aitken	Conservative
6.	Liz Oades	Independent
7.Hyndburn	Munsif Dad	Labour
8.Lancashire	Geoff Driver	Conservative
9.Lancaster	Brendan Hughes	Labour
10.Pendle	Margaret Foxley	Conservative
11.	David Whipp	Liberal Democratic
12.Preston	Brian Rollo	Labour
13.Ribble Valley	Terry Hill	Conservative
14.	Ken Hind	Conservative
15.Rossendale	Adrian Lythgoe	Labour
16.South Ribble	Mike Nathan	Conservative
17.West Lancs	Kevin Wright	Labour
18.Wyre	Roger Berry	Conservative

The Panel are asked to consider the constitution of the Panel in view of the above and the requirement to ‘agree’ the membership in order to achieve the ‘balanced appointment objective’, including the requirement for the Panel to be politically balanced.

New Member Induction

The Panel last year agreed that all members new or continuing should attend an induction session. The Panel is asked to endorse this approach and also ask that Members of the Panel also invite any persons who are likely to be substitutes during the year (as provided for in the Terms of Reference – Panel Arrangements), to attend the Induction Session.

Consultations

All Local Authorities represented on the PCP are consulted in relation to the Constitution/Membership and political balance on the Panel as set out in this report.

Implications:

This item has the following implications, as indicated:

Risk Management

The requirement for an Independent Police and Crime Panel for Lancashire is in accordance with the provisions of the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011.

Legal Implications

The legal implications of this report are set out in the body of the report. The Panel is set up in accordance with Part 2 of Schedule 6 of the The Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. Schedule 6 part 4 [Paragraph 31] makes provision for the duty to produce a balanced panel.

The legislation specifies that Police and Crime Panels must be balanced in terms of geography, politics and the skills, knowledge and experience of panel members.

The LGA guidance further sets out that political balance requires the representation of the political make-up of the relevant local authorities, when taken together. Councillor membership of the panel, when taken together, should reflect the political balance of the force area. Local authorities could look to achieve this, in the first instance, by considering the proportion of councillors from each political party across the force area. This approach is the closest to the spirit of the legislation and reflects the approach taken to police authority membership.

The proposals set out in this report facilitate the Panel considering and delivering the Balanced Appointment Objective when finalising their membership for 2017/18 as far as is practicable.
